Year 2000 Australian URANTIA Book Readers Conference

Hosted and organised by the Canberra Study
Group and sponsored by ANZURA

Lure of the 5th Epoch ascenders at the brink

The Canberra Study Group invites all readers to join us in this special annual event. Be sure to take advantage of this opportunity to share in study and fellowship with readers from far and wide.

Our theme for the conference will be an examination of the steps required to accelerate from the threshold we presently occupy, to a more rapid rate of learning—a unified planetary culture.

We propose to approach the theme via three core presentations:

- 1 The present cultural landscape—signs of the times
- 2 The cosmic viewpoint—big picture
- 3 The role of personality—how valuable each and every one of you really is.

Conference dates

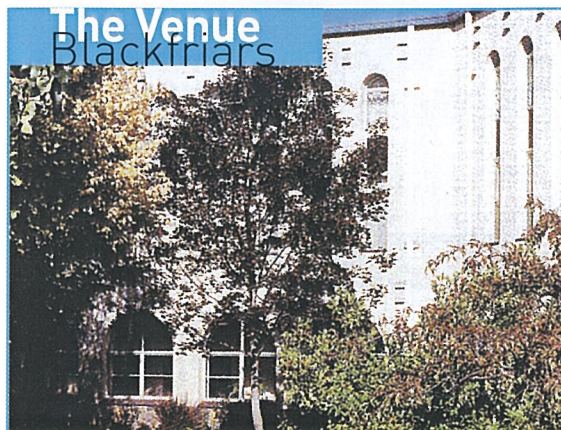

Those of us who will be arriving on Friday 6 October will assemble at Blackfriars Conference Centre,
127 Phillip Avenue, Watson, ACT (02) 6247 8557
between 4pm and 6pm.

We will have dinner that night at a local Canberra restaurant. We have not included this meal in the conference fees, so those joining us will cover the cost of Friday evening's meal themselves.

Full conference fees cover accommodation on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights and all meals from Saturday breakfast until lunch on Monday 9 October.

(Day rates are available. See details on next panel.)

The Venue Blackfriars

The Dominican Fathers opened Blackfriars Priory in 1967. Currently, the largest enterprise of Blackfriars is the Retreat and Conference Centre, which is open to groups from many walks of life.

There is plenty of parking for guests and laundry facilities. For safety, the Priory is security locked each night. All exit doors are keyed alike, and all guests receive keys. If you go out at night or early in the morning, please take your key as the doors will lock behind you. Please do not leave valuables unattended.

The accommodation is in comfortable single rooms. Twin share rooms are available for couples. Communal bathrooms (separate men/women). Towels and linen provided.

Delightful enclosed leafy courtyard for study and meditation.

Large, well appointed dining room.

Lecture room for main sessions.
